WELCOME TO NAIROBI!

Nairobi is Kenya’s capital, and its largest city—with a population over 4.7 million. It is located in the south-central region of Kenya, in the highlands, at an elevation of approximately 5,500 feet. The city originated in the 1890s as a colonial railway settlement, and from about 1900 onward, a small Indian bazaar and trading center was established. As a government center, Nairobi began attracting migrants from rural Kenya, making it one of the largest cities in Africa. It is the principal industrial center of the country, with the railways being the largest single employer. Nairobi is also home to manufacturing industries, and tourism is a key business. In addition to its urban core, the city is home to Nairobi National Park, a large game reserve known for breeding endangered black rhinos and home to numerous mammals, reptiles and birds.

One Off also boasts a Sculpture Garden, which covers two acres of the property. The initial objective of the garden was to create a “salad bowl” for the gallery’s family of Colobus Monkeys. This objective then expanded with the planting of over 100 indigenous trees and shrubs to feed resident monkeys, birds and butterflies. Moreover, the garden has become a spectacular addition to the main gallery, offering visitors a comprehensive art experience. At any given time the garden displays sculptures from a minimum of 15 Kenya based artists.

DAY 4

Maasai Partners

PRESENTATION

Founded in 2009, My Chosen Vessels (MCV) is a NGO whose mission is to empower Maasai people through water, education and culture conservation programs and initiatives, enabling every Maasai person to have access to clean water and land rights and allowing their ancient culture to survive. MCV programs are led by a Maasai Chiefs Council, which consists of 15 traditional Maasai Chiefs spanning Kenya and Tanzania.

The Maasai are an ethnic group inhabiting northern, central and southern Kenya and northern Tanzania. As of 2019, the Maasai population is reported as numbering approximately 1.2 million. Wherever you go in these regions of Kenya and Tanzania, the Maasai people are a near-constant presence. You'll see the brightly colored reds, blues and purples of their Shuka (sheets worn wrapped around the body, one over each shoulder, and a third over the top of them) vividly standing out against the landscape, whether a small mud-thatched village, more modern town or vast open space on which they continue to graze cattle as they have for over 500 years. They are semi-nomadic and pastoral, living by herding cattle and goats.

Nairobi shopping extravaganza

THE MAASAI MARKET

Maasai Market is an open-air market where you can find curios, paintings, jewelry, clothes and fabric, wood carvings, batik wall hangings, soap stone and more. The market was named after the Maasai, one of the most popular tribes in Kenya. This is a roving market that can be found in different locations depending on the day of the week. Enjoy bartering with the sellers and expect to walk away with some great deals (with the recognition that this is the sellers' livelihood.)

A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE

NAIROBI STREET KITCHEN

Nairobi Street Kitchen (NSK) is Nairobi's most unique dining experience, inspired by innovative and creative dining concepts from around the world. NSK, however, is so much more than just a place to eat. While you can dine in a colorful Mumbai-inspired bus, you can also unwind to live local bands, shop items created by artisan vendors, or enjoy a craft cocktail with rooftop views of Nairobi's bustling Westlands. Whatever vibe you seek, NSK is a thrilling street-food market-style experience that offers a myriad of curated zones and exciting events.

The name Serengeti comes from the Maasai word Siringet, which means endless plain. Covering 14,763 square kilometers, the Serengeti is Tanzania's largest national park. Serengeti National Park is known for its annual migration when some six million hooves pound the open plains, as more than 200,000 zebras and 300,000 Thomson's gazelles join the wildebeest's trek for fresh grazing. Yet even when the migration is quiet, the Serengeti offers the most scintillating game-viewing in Africa; great herds of buffalo, elephant and giraffe, and thousands upon thousands of elan, topis, kongoni, impalas and Grant's gazelles. Golden-maned lion prides feast on the abundance of plain grazers. Solitary leopards haunt the acacia trees lining the Seronera River, while a high density of cheetahs prowl the southeastern plains.

stay and dine in the Serengeti

SERENGETI SERENA SAFARI LODGE

Set high on the saddle of a tree-clad ridge and commanding panoramic views over the endlessly rolling reaches and volcanic reefs of the Serengeti, the Serengeti Serena Safari Lodge is the ultimate fusion of traditional African architecture and world-class style. Drawing its inspiration from the circular Rondavel dwellings and winding paths of a traditional Maasai Village, the Lodge features thickly thatched, stone-built rooms, spaciouly set amongst groves of indigenous trees which are cooled by sparkling streams and papyrus-fringed ponds.

SERENGETI SERENA SAFARI LODGE RESTAURANT

Linked by shaded walkways and clustered around a roaring furnace of the central, circular barbeque arena, the high-domed halls of the two-tiered dining room are supported by massive papyrus-topped pillars and embellished with sumptuous traditional Makonde carvings. Breakfast and lunch are presented in buffet-style and feature a wide range of international choice. Table d'hote dinner menus feature a salad buffet, soup, entrée, pudding, cheese and biscuits as well as tea or coffee. The majority of the restaurant's meats, dairy products, fruits and vegetables are sourced from the communities that surround the reserve.

an evening in the Serengeti

SUNDOWNERS AT MBINGWE VALLEY

Few experiences compare with the glory of a sunset over Africa, especially when the scene is set against breathtaking plains or across a range of hills; only to be enhanced by a selection of cocktails and canapes. The sundowner is an essential part of safari life, dating back to the great safaris of the 1920s.

BUSH DINNER IN THE SERENGETI

Following cocktails during sunset, further enhance your safari experience with a Bush Dinner. Enjoy natural bush surroundings in a torch-lit barbeque dinner just a short drive from the Lodge. Amid the cultural watch of Maasai warriors, private chefs will prepare each dish to your liking as you gather around the bonfire or star gaze in this magical safari setting.

ZANZIBAR ISLAND

Zanzibar is a semi-autonomous region of Tanzania. It is composed of the Zanzibar Archipelago in the Indian Ocean, lying approximately 22 miles off the coast of east-central Africa and consisting of several islands. The capital is Zanzibar City, located on the island of Unguja; and its historic center is Stone Town, a World Heritage Site. While Zanzibar is officially part of Tanzania, in almost all aspects--politics, religion, culture, food, life on the Island(s) is different. Most inhabitants consider themselves Zanzibari rather than Tanzanian, and their territory has its own leader and governing bodies. Mainland Tanzania is a mix of Christian, Muslim and indigenous groups. However, Zanzibar is almost entirely Muslim. Zanzibar is culturally diverse and boasts a colorful history--as a base for traders from the African Lakes region, India and the Arabian peninsula, Zanzibar became a hub for the region's slave and spice trades. Island life is slow. Life moves pole pole (Swahili meaning for slow). Things in Zanzibar don't always make sense, don't always work, or can take a while. It's important to enjoy the calm chaos and take a cue from the unhurried pace.

*stay and dine in ZanzibarMELIA ZANZIBAR

Melia Zanzibar is a five-star luxury beach all-inclusive resort situated on the north-east coast of the exotic Zanzibar Island. The hotel is built on a 40 acre estate with a beautiful beach of pearlescent white sand lapped by warm ocean waters, 300 meters long, situated at the very end of the property to produce the perfect combination with nature. The resort is ringed by a natural by a coral reef, making bathing a relaxing and safe experience.

BEACH HOUSE RESTAURANT & BAR

For centuries, trade and migration have marked the history of the many communities living on the island off the Tanzanian mainland. Merchants of all colors and creeds came to its shores, each leaving their mark, resulting in one of the richest and most diverse food cultures in East Africa. Our food, drinks and space are curated to blend the traditions, cultures, and local ingredients left on the island with modern vibes.

SPICES RESTAURANT

Modeled after Zanzibar's traditional spice market, the restaurant offers a relaxed dining experience that features an international mixture of cuisines with a distinct Arabian and African influence. With three spectacular open show cooking islands, the restaurant spills out onto a beautiful terrace sheltered by island trees, allowing for "al fresco" dining. Chefs from all around the world will prepare surprising theme evenings for you to have a great culinary experience.
